PART 1: READING COMPREHENSION

Taufik Hidayat: An Indonesian Badminton Legend

Taufik Hidayat is a former Indonesian professional badminton player who is widely regarded as one of the greatest singles players in the history of the sport. Born on August 10, 1981, in Bandung, West Java, Taufik showed immense passion and talent for badminton from a very young age. His father introduced him to the sport, and his dedication led him to join the SGS Elektrik Bandung club before being selected for the Indonesian national team.

Taufik is best known for his exceptional playing style, which combined power, elegance, and creativity. He possessed a legendary backhand smash, often recognized as one of the fastest and most powerful backhand smashes in badminton history, reaching speeds of over 300 km/h. His calm demeanor on the court and smooth footwork made his matches captivating to watch.

Throughout his illustrious career, Taufik achieved numerous prestigious titles. His crowning achievement came in 2004 when he won the Gold Medal in the men's singles category at the Athens Olympic Games. A year later, in 2005, he won the IBF World Championships in Anaheim, becoming the first male singles player to hold both the Olympic and World Championship titles simultaneously. In addition to these major victories, he won the Indonesian Open six times and secured multiple Asian Games gold medals.

Off the court, Taufik is admired for his charisma and ongoing contributions to the development of Indonesian sports. After retiring from professional badminton in 2013, he established the Taufik Hidayat Arena in Ciracas, East Jakarta, a venue dedicated to training future badminton champions. Taufik Hidayat remains an inspiring icon for young athletes in Indonesia and around the world.
